NOTE:

Delegates in Two Bedroom Summer Apartments or Summer Housing Studio Apartments will be sharing suites with other delegates of the Information Hiding Conference. Delegates should call either with a roommate already chosen or understand that they might not know the person in the other bedroom. Hotel Alma will chose roommates for those that do not already have one chosen based on gender.

Each delegate in the apartment will be required to pay half of the room rate. Should a delegate be in an apartment by themselves, they will be responsible for the entire cost of the suite.

At the time of booking each guest will be required to provide payment for one night's room and tax. This payment is non-refundable and be credited towards the guests final statement of account.
